NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the sea beach and land between the Government road and low water mark between the following points:

From the second to the third mile post on the Government road from Wailuku to Kahului, running along the sea at Owa, Wailuku, Wailuku District, Island of Maui, Territory of Hawaii, has been set apart and reserved for the use of the Government.
All persons are hereby forbidden to remove any sand and gravel from any of the land within the above named limits without written permission from the Commissioner of Public Lands.

FINED $1 FOR BEATING WIFE Manuel Coelho, the Wailuku automobile man, was fined $1 and costs in the Districts Magistrate Court yesterday morning for whipping his wife.
The assault was the culmination of domestic trouble which has existed for some time. As brought out at the trial, Mrs. Coelho hasn't liked the joy rides her husband has been taking without her, and to even up matters she took a little ride to Kula without mentioning her plans to him. On her return a stormy interview took place, in which she is alleged to have thrown a lamp at her spouse, and her chasisement followed. She had him arrested, and in court intimated her intention to get a divorce.

SUBMARINES TO PRACTICE OFF LAHAINA IN JUNE

About June 1 the four submarines of the third division, the K-3, K-4, K-7 and K-8, will leave their Pearl Harbor base for a cruise to Lahaina, Maui, and return, accompanied by the submarine tender Alert.

The division will be stationed in and around Lahaina for a month on target practice and sea maneuvers.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: I hereby give notice that I will not be responsible for any debts contracted in my name by my wife, Mary

WEEKLY MARKET LETTER

Honolulu, May 15, 1916.

Chicken eggs are getting scarcer every day and the price is slowly advancing. The supply is not sufficient to meet the demand. More and more people are calling for stamped eggs and it is probable that stamped and guaranteed eggs will always bring 3c to 4c a dozen more than the ordinary run of eggs which come into the market.

The demand for young broilers is especially good as well as that for all other kinds of chickens and ducks in good condition.

A few bags of Maui red beans were received during the past week and were sold for $5.25. The demand for Maui reds and calico beans is extremely good at the present time.
Those who are to have beans for sale during June and July would do well to get in touch with the Marketing Division before disposing of their crops. From present indications the bean crop is going to bring good prices this year, and the farmer should be the man to profit, instead of some buyer.

There is very little Hawaiian corn coming into the market at the present time. The crop on Maui is reported to be exhausted.

The last crop of Japanese Seed Rice of No. 1 quality is practically all sold.
There is also very little No. 1 quality practically all sold. There is also very little No. 1 Hawaiian rice left on the market.

The market for new Island Irish potatoes of good size is especially good.
Small potatoes are, however, a drug on the market. Tomatoes are getting more plentiful but cabbage is still scarce and dear.

Large quantities of alligator pears were received last week from Kona and among them some very good fruit.
Limes are a drug on the market. All dealers are overstocked and it will not pay producers to ship until the present oversupply is used. Watermelons are getting more plentiful and are selling at about 3c a pound. Large quantities are coming from Hilo.

The price of live hogs, dressed

Departments Of Big Fair Decided Upon

their employees, in case the committee finds it impractical to secure such seed otherwise. With the encouragement of the plantations, and the added inducement of prizes possible to be acquired, the committee believes that it will be possible to very greatly stimulate the growing of vegetables and flowers. It is also probable that the same plan will be worked through the children in the public schools.

Locey General Manager
F. C. Locey was appointed general manager of the big fair. It is believed that in his duties in keeping a general supervision over all the committees, and in handling the many things that will come up not covered by any committee, he will be one of the busiest members of the organization.

The committee will hold another meeting in Wailuku at 7:30 o'clock on the evening of May 30.

Big Goat Hunt On Kahoolawe Starts

A war of extermination started on Kahoolawe yesterday with the arrival there of Superintendent of Forestry, Charles S. Judd, Elsen Low, and Prof.
H. E. Gregory of Yale. The war is against the wild goats that infest the island, and which are interfering seriously with the growth of vegetation.
And the vegetation is necessary if a large part of the soil of the island is to be prevented from blowing away.

The hunting party arrived at Lahai-na from Honolulu on Wednesday evening, and went over to Kahoolawe by sloop yesterday morning. It will be joined next Friday by A. L. C. Atkinson, and a detachment of his machine-gun corps and with these reinforcements the havoc among the goats is expected to be something fierce.

Prof. Gregory, who is one of the party is a geologist of note, is returning from a government mission to Australia where he investigated the possibility of water development in some of the dry sections of that continent. He will be on Kahoolawe but a few days when he will continue his homeward journey. According to this expert, the water outlook for a big lot of Australia is not very bright, except possibly for salt water.

Howell Company Gets Lahainaluna Road Job

But one bid was received for the building of the Lahainaluna school road, when the time for opening the tenders arrived last Saturday. This one bid was that of the Hugh Howell Engineering Company, and was for $16,885. The contract was later let on this basis, and work will begin within a short time, it is expected. The specifications call for an oil macadam road.
The contract was let by the Superintendent of public works, and is to be paid from a special appropriation by the last legislature.

Shingle Comes Instead Of Dillingham For Polo

Walter Dillingham will not be able to take part in the polo game at the Keolu field tomorrow afternoon, and his place will be taken by R. W. Shingle. This word was received yesterday, and is the cause of some little disappointment, from the fact that the game for next Monday was to have been played by the original All-Hawaii team which played on the coast three years ago, and a picked Maui team, and Dillingham's absence makes this impossible.

The game tomorrow afternoon will begin about 4 o'clock sharp, and should be of much interest, although it is really but preliminary to the big tournament later in the summer. The Oahu players who will arrive tomorrow morning are: Harold Castle, Arthur Rice, and Bob Shingle. Dave Fleming, of the Maui team will fill out the team.

CONCERT FOR KAHULUI COMMUNITY HOUSE FUND

A concert will be given at the Kahului Lyceum Thursday evening, June first, by the Kahului Quartette. Miss Walter, soprano, will appear in a repertoire of Italian, French and English songs. Mrs. A. C. Rattray, contralto, will give special numbers in her usual pleasing manner. David Rattray, tenor, and Mr. Pleasant, bass, will also contribute to the program.

Miss Hoffman will preside at the piano, and Jack Walsh will appear in a special number.

A dance will follow the concert, at which Ed. Walsh and J. S. Mackenzie will be floor managers. The proceeds of the affairs will go to the fund for building the new community house at Kahului.

meats and hides remains the same as last week.

The icebox which is being built for the Division will soon be completed.
As soon as arrangements can be made the Division will sell beef, veal and pork in retail quantities. All meat will be sold for cash and customers will be expected to pack their purchases home with them.

A. T. LONGLEY,
Marketing Superintendent.
